THE HOME PAPER

SAY!

(By CHARLES J. ARNOLD)

Novel and unique entertainment being the vogue just now—did you get the "unique" and "vogue"? I think they are good — "Shorty" Vaughan, clever and efficient Pennsylvania Railroad man; Eugene Light, Decorator and my "stumble" at the Cafeteria at 5:30 o'clock, where we were greeted by Glenn early morning head waiter at the popular eating house. Table decorations consisted of a catsup bottle, mustard bowl, sugar bowl, salt and pepper and a rack of paper napkins. Under the supervision and direction of Glenn the following menu was served:

Shorty Vaughan—Fried eggs with crisp bacon and one cup of black coffee.

Eugene Light—Oat meal, buttered toast and coffee with abundance of rich cream.

Charles J. Arnold — Doughnuts with just a dash of mocha and java on the side.

Following the delicious repast, a social conversation was "indulged" in for quite a bit, after which we all left for our work, in the mean time having voted the event a most pleasant one and agreeing to meet at the same time and place next year. All of the guests were attired in their regular mid-summer attire, which was not sufficient to combat with the early morning chilliness.

Well it looks like winter was here. This morning the thermometer registered only slightly over zero and reports are that watering buckets in several chicken yards were covered with a thin sheet of ice. Heavy frosts are reported at Carpentersville, Russellville and other northern points and a flock of chickens were seen going south past THE HERALD office, toward the Havens Poultry House this morning, which is said to be a sure sign that winter is advancing.

From the Far North—in fact from Bay View—there comes to "Say" from that old standby "Constant Reader," a charge that the statute of limitations does not protect me from prosecution in the case I mentioned a few days ago, when I admitted the theft, during by boy hood days, of a water melon. Old "Constant" contends that I kept concealed the fact that I had water melon and that under the condition the statute of limitations does not effect the case. "How-some-ever" he is entirely mistaken for I DID NOT conceal the fact that I had water melon, but simply concealed the facts concerning where from came it. The case, it seems to me, is identical with the case of Governor Ed. He had his political melon and we all knew it, but we did not know from where it came.

But let's let "Constant Reader" have his say. Here it is:

SAY EDITOR:—
Your watermelon case and Ed. Jackson's case are identical so far as the statute of limitations goes but the element of concealment which dominates your case, and which is the serious part of the charge was absent in Ed's case. Now the fact that you are the proprietor of a Democratic paper in Putnam Co. and that your conscience is already a little "jumpy" did not prompt me to mention this and add to your burden. As a friend I hope you will find a court decision that will entirely sustain you.

(Signed) Constant Reader

Railroad grade crossing were the scenes of 5,640 accidents during 1927. There were 2,371 deaths and 6,613 serious injuries. The Supreme Court has held that the railroads are not responsible, but the railroads are bending every effort to reduce the number of these distressing disasters. They are asking the co-operation of the driving public. The Big Four Route will have an interesting exhibit at the Indiana State Fair in which the moving picture, "Gambling with Death" will be shown. This depicts the hazards of crossing railroad tracks. Safety signs and signals will be demonstrated. Better take a look at it and heed its teachings. When it comes to Railroad crossings, good judgement is such safer than to depend on good luck.

DOCTOR KILLED BY ANAEMIC IMMIGRANT BOY

CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—(INS)—Dr. Julian M. Sinke, 41, married and the father of two children, was shot and fatally wounded early today as he sat in his automobile with Miss Rose Steele, 28, a patient of the physician. Dr. Sinke died on the way to a hospital.

The same bullet passed through the body of Dr. Sinke and wounded Miss Steele. She is in a serious condition and may not live.

An 18-year-old immigrant boy, so anaemic and weak he had to use both hands to pull the trigger, did the shooting. He fired when the doctor resisted his attempts at robbery.

FIND TWELVE WERE RELEASED AT STATE FARM

CHARLES C. HUESTIS, TRUSTEE, CONFIDENT THAT PRISON TRUSTY IS RESPONSIBLE FOR ALTERED RECORDS — CRIME COMMISSION MEETS

Investigation of officials Friday at the Indiana state farm at Putnamville five miles southwest of here, revealed three additional prisoners had gained premature release through alteration of records, Ralph Howard superintendent of the institution announced. This makes a total of twelve known to have gained their freedom illegally.

Steve Mizarik, Michigan City, one of this group has been returned to the farm, making eleven still at large. The investigation is the result of the discovery Monday of the difference in dates between prison records and original dates.

Charles C. Huestis of this city, secretary of the board of trustees of the farm stated that he was confident that the blame for the discrepancy in the records rested entirely with a prisoner clerk who worked in the personnel department for nine weeks this year. This trusty has been released. Mr. Huestis said, but strong circumstantial evidence points to him as being the guilty party.

Capt. Elmer Armit, assistant superintendent, in charge of the personnel department, is beyond suspicion, Mr. Huestis asserted. He went on to state that the change in new prisoners and old prisoners averaged a hundred a week. "For fourteen years trustees with education have worked in the office doing routine work which has saved the state of Indiana approximately $30,000. This is the first instance that we have ever found any evidence of crookedness in this department," he said. Mr. Huestis would not divulge the name of the suspected trusty.

Thirty members of the Indiana crime commission, appointed at the convention of the State Charities Association last October, in Indianapolis, assembled at the state farm today, headed by Judge W. H. Eichhorn of Bluffton. This committee last year was ordered to investigate and make a report on causes and prevention of crime in Indiana. Various meetings have been held this year at the different institutions over the state and the session today was for the purpose of going over the preliminary report.

Several changes were suggested. Mr. Huestis announced and the final report will be presented at the association's annual convention in October. Members of the board of trustees who met with the commission are: John Boyd, Vincennes, president; John G. H. Klinger, Brazil, treasurer and Mr. Huestis.

WORK ON NEW M. E. CHURCH BEING RUSHED

BUILDING WILL BE COMPLETELY ENCLOSED BY FIRST OF JANUARY. CONTRACTOR SAYS

LESLIE COLVIN IS BUILDER

Second Unit Also Expected To Start Immediately — Located at Simpson And Locust Streets

Work is being rushed on the building of the new Methodist Episcopal Church in Greencastle, which will be completely enclosed by the first of January, according to Leslie Colvin, Indianapolis, contractor. Mr. Colvin was contractor for the two new dormitories, Longden hall and Lucy Rowland hall, and for the additions to the Methodist Episcopal Hospital, Indianapolis. Steam shovels were operated day and night for several weeks to make up for lost time, and the basement is now cleaned out and the foundation is being built. The work is on the worship unit which contains the auditorium, two church parlors, pastor's study, choir room, the community hall, men's club room, and kitchen facilities.

The second unit is to be built by DePauw university according to the vote of the University trustees at their last annual meeting in June. This is to be a school of religion. It will be physically separate from the church unit and will be under the ownership and control of the University trustees. It is expected that work upon this unit will be begun in the near future, and that its completion will be accomplished at about the same time as the completion of the first unit. Under definite terms of a long time lease portions of this building will be used for Sunday School purposes. The School of Religion will be in use seven days a week. This method of building avoids the necessity of having a large investment in a building ordinarily used not more than two days a week.

With the beginning of construction payment upon the pledges is being quickened, Dr. C. Howard Taylor, pastor of the church, says. The new building is located upon the block formerly occupied by Campus Cottage and the College Cafeteria, diagonally across from the University Administration building, on Locust street, just north of East campus. It is located about half way between the two former churches, Locust Street M. E. and College Avenue M. E. churches, which merged some time ago.

WIRE STEALERS TO BE TRIED MON.

(Brazil Times)

Virgil Ball, Dan Sullivan and George Baumunk, of Taylorville, who were arrested by the police Wednesday while trying to sell 290 pounds of copper wire at a local junk yard, entered pleas of not guilty to the charge of bringing stolen property into the county when arraigned in city court this morning and their hearing was set for Monday. Attorney Austin Sweet, of Terre Haute, appeared for the defendants. The men are said to have stolen the wire at the Limerdale cement plant and after burning off the insulation attempted to sell it here. They claim the wire was given to them by a man at the cement plant but this is denied by officials of the company who say the wire was stolen.

A REAL SLAP

WARSAW, Ind., Aug. 25.—(INS)—An thoughtless friend slapped George Worley, 72, veteran school teacher, so hard on the back that the old man who was standing at the top of the east courthouse steps, lost his balance and rolled clear down to the bottom of the stairs.

Worley received a painfully sprained left ankle, a bruised right arm and many contusions in his tumble. He was taken to the Warsaw clinic where an X-Ray examination showed that no bones were broken.

WATCHMAN FINDS FIRE IN BAKERY

JOHN HAMM SEES SMOKE POURING FROM REAR OF HAYS BAKERY EARLY SATURDAY MORNING — EXTINGUISHES BLAZE WITH WATER—AVERTS SERIOUS DISASTER

The smell of smoke and a resulting investigation by John Hamm, local night watchman, early Saturday morning, probably averted what might have proven a serious conflagration in the downtown business district.

Mr. Hamm, who is employed as a night watchman by local merchants, was walking in the alley behind the Hays Bakery when he smelled the smoke. Tracing the odor to the rear of the bakery he saw the smoke coming from cracks in the window. Using a key Mr. Hamm entered and found a small fire in the flooring in the corner of the bake shop which is under the store proper.

After Mr. Hamm discovered the fire the baker came in and together they extinguished the blaze with a bucket of water. Officer Hamm then notified the fire department and Fireman Ragsdale inspected the bakery to see that the fire had been thoroughly extinguished.

Fire Chief John Goddard reported Saturday that the fire was caused by soot dropping to the floor from a gas burner. Damage was negligible.

BROWN ENTERS BANKRUPTCY

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 25.—Listing liabilities of $20,070.51 and assets of $500.50, Glen Brown, farmer and contractor of Coatesville, yesterday filed a bankruptcy petition in Federal court. The major liabilities were three judgements: $8,700 to the Central Trust Company of Greencastle; $6,500 to the Martinsville Trust Company and $2,300 to Morgan county. There was a long list of smaller notes and accounts. Exemption was claimed on the assets.

CAMPAIGN OF GOV. AL SMITH IN FULL SWING

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE ELATED OVER ENTHUSIASTIC RECEPTIONS ACCORDED HIM OUTSIDE HOME STATE

ADDRESSES CROWD OF 100,000

Leaders In New Jersey Prepare Tremendous Demonstration At Troop Review Saturday

By RAYMOND I. BORST
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

SPRINGLAKE, N. J., Aug. 25.—Governor Al Smith's active campaign for the white house appeared to be in full swing here today.

Elated by the enthusiastic receptions accorded him in his first appearance outside New York state since he formally accepted the presidential nomination, the Democratic nominee was to review the New Jersey national guard at Seagirt this afternoon in the presence of a crowd which Democratic leaders predicted would exceed 100,000.

Although Smith came to New Jersey ostensibly to review the national guardsmen and to enjoy a week-end rest, in reality he has formally launched his active campaign for the presidency. He said he did not come here to make a speech but the Democratic leaders of New Jersey have prepared such a demonstration for him at today's review that they do not believe he will be able to resist the temptation to discuss campaign issues.

New Jersey is one of the wet eastern states which Smith's managers expect he will sweep on election day.

Mayor Frank Hague of Jersey City, Democratic leader of New Jersey, is said to be the man who engineered the plan for Smith to make his first appearance in friendly territory. Mayor Hague has long been one of Smith's closest friends. He is said to have told the Governor that if he

MONTGOMERY CO. FAIR TO OPEN NEXT WEEK

ELABORATE PROGRAM ARRANGED FOR EVENT AT CRAWFORDSVILLE—FIREWORKS AT NIGHT—RACES IN AFTERNOONS

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Aug. 25.—One of the most elaborate programs ever arranged for the Montgomery County Fair is now being completed by the officials of the Fair association and will be ready for presentation at the county Fairgrounds in Crawfordsville next week. While the grounds will be open to visitors beginning Sunday the Fair program proper will not start until Tuesday.

Officials of the Fair announced today that entries in the various exhibits were coming in rapidly and that some of the best displays in the history of this county event would be ready for public inspection next week. It is the intention of the Fair association to offer a program that will prove of interest to all and considerable money is being expended to offer a greater variety of attractions.

Beginning Tuesday and continuing through Friday afternoon a high class race program will be offered. Herman Bratton in charge of the entries announces that a large number of horses will be stabled here by the end of the week and that some of the best trotters and pacers appearing on county Fair circuits in Indiana will be ready to perform before race fans here.

As an added feature of the racing program whippet races will be run each afternoon. These races will be interspersed among the regular harness races and should prove an interesting diversion for Fair patrons. This will be the first time that whippet races have ever been held here. They have proved extremely popular in many parts of the country and are expected to add much to the afternoon programs on the track. Pushmobile races for the youngsters are also included.

The Fair association announces that an elaborate display of fireworks will be presented at night and that the Association has spent several hundred dollars for this part of the week's entertainment. Fireworks always prove a source of enjoyment and this year's display will be unusually fine.

As a sort of climax to the night programs for "The Greatest on Earth" a boxing exhibition will be staged Friday night.

Another feature of this year's program will be the saddle show which will be held in front of the grandstand.

INDIANA ST. IS OPENED

Indiana street pavement was open Saturday from Seminary street south. The remaining closed section between Seminary and Walnut streets, will be opened to traffic next Wednesday, it was announced by the city engineer, Walter Dunbar. Some work yet remains on the alley intersections of this section of the street but this work will not interfere with the opening of the street. It was decided to open the street in order to aid south Indiana street residents who cannot use College avenue.

FOURTEEN DEAD IN DISASTROUS SUBWAY WRECK

MORE THAN 156 INJURED IN HOSPITALS AT NEW YORK—FORTY-SEVEN HURT SERIOUSLY

DEATH LIST MAY INCREASE

Debris Of Manhattan's Most Frightful Subway Wreck Removed—Included Severed Fingers And Other Personal Effects Of Victims

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—(INS)—Fourteen persons were killed and 95 injured, some probably mortally, in New York's worst underground disaster, an accurate check of hospitals and morgues revealed today, as the subway trains again started roaring through their tunnels on schedule and at full speed.

Twelve of the dead have been identified but the bodies of two women, mangled almost beyond recognition as human beings, still remained in the Bellevue morgue.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—(INS)—Fifteen persons were killed and 156 injured, forty-seven seriously, in the disastrous subway wreck at Times Square late yesterday, a check-up of hospitals and the morgues revealed today. In the transit commission's original report, seventeen were reported dead. It was feared that the death list would be increased during the day.

Normal service on the West side line was restored this morning after more than 500 men, working all night, removed the debris of Manhattan's most frightful subway wreck from the tunnel. The debris loaded on flat cars included a few severed fingers, personal effects of the victims and chunks of the heavy concrete supporting wall which was broken in two at 5:00 o'clock when struck by the ninth car of a south-bound ten car Brooklyn Express.

W. E. Baldwin, switchman in the Times Square station, was arrested early today on charge of homicide. It is charged that he ordered Motorman McCormack to start the train after the damaged switch which caused the wreck was declared to have been repaired.

Meanwhile three investigations into the wreck were begun. One was conducted by the Interborough Rapid Transit Company among its employees, another by Mayor James J. Walker and a special committee and a third by the Transit Commission. The investigations were hampered by clashes between Mayor Walker and the police on one hand, and Interborough officials on the other. Police charged that the Interborough officials refused to produce employees needed as witnesses and Mayor Walker ordered that Frank Hedley, president of the company, be arrested. This order was revoked, however, when Hedley promised to produce the employees wanted.

Police Commissioner Warren charged today that subway employees at the Times Square Station knew that the damaged switch which caused the wreck was defective. The train was held at the station for five minutes while repairmen worked at the switch he said. When asked why the train was allowed to proceed at its regular speed over the defective switch, interborough officials said they would make no statement until the company's official inquiry was completed.

The damaged switch was split by the ninth car of the train, which had just pulled out of the station. The steel side of the car was ground off when it crashed against the platform and heavy pillars supporting the street above, and ripped through the concrete supporting wall.

The screaming passengers of the eighth car, packed in like sardines, were thrown onto the tracks. Fire, caused by short circuiting and burning insulation, turned the tunnel into

CLIFTY PARK IS INDIANA'S RIVAL FOR THE YELLOWSTONE

Beauties of Downstate Mecca Nationally Known to Travelers.

By Charles G. Sagers
State Department of Conservation

"Thousands of tourists cross the entire United States to witness the splendor of the Golden Gate. Most of them have gone too far," declares the Hoosier State Automobile Association. "To really appreciate the romance of a sunset with its grandeur of display, go to the veranda of Clifty Inn. Before you is the beautiful Ohio wending its lazy course between Kentucky and Indiana hills, clad in deepest green during the summer and the blending of the rarest tints in autumn.
To see this scene is to forget the Golden Gate."

Clifty Falls State Park—with its marvelous gorges, rocky canyons, steep hillsides and luxuriant growth of magnificent timber, all in the famous valley of the Ohio—offers attractions that few places in the nation can match.

Clifty Park, one mile from Madison, consists of 600 acres of wild rugged and majestic landscape.
This public estate portrays better than any other state-owned land, pioneer Indiana with its wealth of hardwood forest, gorge country, rich river bottom lands and towering hillsides, accessible by well marked foot trails.

The park is a trough out back in-
to a plateau for some two miles, along which are some thirty waterfalls of wondrous beauty, ending with Clifty Falls, a majestic drop of 90 feet. Before the crystal-pure stream leaps into space over Clifty, it gathers dizzy speed, rushing down a series of cascades, while vivid-colored mists float gently out over the valley to come to rest on the huge rocks in the ravine depths far below.

This park is situated in a section of the state rich in historic atmosphere. At Madison one finds in perfect preservation the famous home of James P. Lanier, pioneer Indiana banker whose generous financing of the state government during the dark rebellion days of the Civil War stamped him a national patriot unselfishly devoted to state and nation. This wonderful home, typical of the domicile of the rich man of that period, is under the careful supervision of the conservation department, which agency restored it to its former original beauty. The home was built in 1842-44, commands a princely view across a terraced garden lawn to the placid Ohio river and, rich in habilitations of a generation past, is one of the historic monuments of Indiana.

Clifty Park best illustrates the beautiful Ohio valley found along this great river with the Hoosier boundary. The Inn, a substantial and artistic brick structure resting on a prominence 415 feet above the river, provides a commanding panoramic view of the valley for many miles, distant Kentucky hills and rich blue-grass agricultural land, Madison City, a mile away, seemingly nestles at the brink of the great gorge. The hotel is modern in every respect and its comfortable service, wholesome meals and restful atmosphere has added decidedly to the popularity of this great public reservation.

VOTERS' APATHY IS CRIME CAUSE LEGION THINKS

By International News Service
WALSBERG, Colo., Aug. 24.—Apathy of voters to exercise their franchise was given as one of the chief causes of crime, in an address before the Colorado convention of the American Legion here today by James F. Barton, national adjutant of the legion.

"The reign of crime, the gun-toting gangster who has extended his activities from the big cities into the highways and byways of the countryside with the advent of good roads and the automobile, can be traced to the politicians who protect them in their bailiwicks," Barton declared.

Citizen To Blame
"But behind the politicians," he said, "is the apathy of the voters. The citizen of the United States who neglects his duty of taking an active part in the councils of his chosen party, and who fails to exercise his franchise at the polls, is the one to blame."

Making a strong plea that legion members go to the polls during the coming presidential election, Barton said:

"This year we have a presidential election. From the very beginning of The American Legion, this organization has urged an awakening of the voters to their duty. The Legion has no ax to grind, other than love of country. The Legion is non-partisan, it knows no creed, no race, for in its membership roll are the men of all political beliefs, of all religious faiths and men of every race."

Legion In Politics
"But the American Legion is vitally concerned in politics in the general meaning of the term. It does not care which party you support, just so you take an active part in some party. The Legion does not stop there."

"Of what use is your vote, of what use is your activity in any party, if you do not follow up your vote after the man you elect into office forgets the promises he made to you?"

"The time has come in this country for its whole citizenry to let public servants we elect into office know that we are watching them, and let them know they will be accountable at the polls the next election for their failure if they do fail to uphold the laws they swore to protect. Make the United States of America a government by the people and for the people a fact."

PLYMOUTH, Ind., Aug. 25.—(INS)—Edward Keyser, 44, Bremen farmer, was in jail here today facing charges on the complaint of his wife that he assaulted their 16-year-old foster daughter while he was allegedly drunk.

"POLITICAL PROFIT" SAYS
AL SMITH WILL WIN
Cloverdale, Indiana
August 25, 1928

Dear "Say":

The political pot has commenced to boil and I thought would give you a little political dope. I am a close observer and talk politics with nearly everybody in and around Cloverdale. I am considered a political profit down this way. In 1912 and 1916, I predicted Wilson would be elected and in 1920 I predicted Harding would be elected and 1924 I predicted Coolidge would be elected and this year I predict that Al Smith will carry the solid South, the New England States, Wisconsin and the two Dakotas, Michigan, part of the border states and will have a majority of 42 electoral votes over Mr. Hoover.

I have always voted the Republican ticket but this year I am going to vote for Al Smith.

Yours truly,

came to New Jersey and received a tremendous ovation it would have a psychological effect on the rest of the country.

Before the Governor returns to New York the first of next week he will probably have been cheered by upwards of 500,000 Jersey admirers. On his sixty miles auto ride here yesterday afternoon it was estimated that close to 200,000 men, women and children applauded Smith as he passed through various cities and seashore resorts.

TONSIL OPERATIONS

Six patients underwent operations for the removal of tonsils at the County Hospital Saturday morning.

STEPHENSON TO APPEAL TO COOLIDGE

WILL TAKE CASE OF ACCUSED MURDER TO PRESIDENT. ATTORNEYS STATE — SEEK 90-DAY PAROLE FOR PRISONER

GARY, Ind., Aug. 25.—(INS)—As sailing bitterly Attorney General Arthur Gilliom's action in seeking a Supreme court writ to halt a ruling by Judge John Richer in Laporte on habeas corpus proceedings to free D. C. Stephenson on bond from state prison, attorneys for the prisoner today said they would ask President Coolidge to free Stephenson on ninety day parole for the purpose of perfecting a new appeal of the Indiana Supreme court.

Attorney Robert Moore of Gary, one of the attorneys seeking habeas writ for Stephenson, made announcement of an appeal to the President on instructions from the prisoner after a conference in Stephenson's prison cell yesterday afternoon.

Freedom for perfection of a new appeal is sought by Stephenson because, he charges, the appeal now pending before that court was filed by attorneys hostile to his interests and not of his choosing.

Moore claims justice can be done only through filing of a new appeal.

Today's announcement of a change in policy to free the accused murderer of Madge Oberholzer follows a plan to take the case into federal courts if Richer is denied the right to rule, though the latter plan has not been abandoned, according to Moore. With Moore in the case are his law partner, Morris C. Udorn of Gary and Attorneys Lloyd Hill and Paul Newman of Indianapolis.

Stephenson's present lawyers never saw the original transcript of the trial, Moore charges in his statement today, which also says conspiracies thwart every move on Stephenson's behalf.

"BIG SMOKE" TO SUPPORT SMITH

HAMMOND, Ind., Aug. 25.—(INS)—Jack Johnson, Negro who held the world's heavyweight championship, has turned from the fight arena to the realm of politics, he admitted during a visit here.

The big gorilla arms that once mauled to oblivion all other pugilists he encountered now will do duty in handshaking Negro voters whom Johnson hopes to wean away from the Republican party to support of Al Smith's presidential aspirations. Johnson planned to organize numerous negro Smith clubs.

Johnson conferred here with Frank Martin, Lake County Democratic chairman, with a view of undertaking a strenuous campaign for Smith among the thousands of Negroes here and there were also reports that he would be active in the black belt of Indianapolis and in other centers of his race.

Asked whether he would aspire to the title vacated by Gene Tunney, the "Big Smoke" evaded the question by saying that his present ambitions are chiefly political. But he added hastily:

"I can take any of those boys today though, and I know it."

Jack, however, admitted he is 50 years old, adding he feels about 30. He said he boxes every day and recently scored a ring triumph in Indianapolis.

CATTLE DIE IN WRECK

WABASH, Ind., Aug. 23.—Twenty four head of cattle, out of a shipment of 189 head made by a Lagro stock buyer, were killed when a fast freight train on the Wabash was wrecked yesterday at Thurman, O., according to word received here. Sixteen cars were derailed in the wreck. The remainder of the cattle are said to have escaped and are running at large near the scene of the wreck.

a shambles.

Into this inferno were catapulted the terror-stricken occupants of the eighth car, which tore loose from the train and toppled over near the burning wreckage of the ninth. The falling passengers clutched at available supports in the car but were swept relentlessly into the flaming wreckage by the oncoming human wave behind them. Heaps of glass and jagged chunks of steel tore at the flesh of those fortunate enough to escape the searing flames. Subway employees at the station cut off the power in the third rail, saving countless others from death.

The forward half of the severed ninth car skidded down the tracks like a headless horseman and collapsed. The rear end of the car was telescoped by the tenth and last car.

The screams of the victims, reverberating through the tunnel like the death agonies of wild beasts, were borne to the ears of thousands of home-goers who crowded the platform of the Times Square station. Terrified by the shrill cries of the dying, by the flashes of electrical fire and by the smudgy smoke which filled the tunnel, the rush-hour crowd became panic stricken and fought to reach the exits.

A detective pulled police and fire alarms and recruited scores of patrol men who cleared the platforms and began rescue work. Dozens of ambulances from fourteen hospitals arrived and carried away the bodies of mangled victims.

Those of the 1,800 passengers who could walk staggered along the tunnel to the platform in a daze. Women moaned and mumbled prayers, and strong men were shaken by the horror they had witnessed. All were blackened by smoke. With averted eyes they passed by the chaos on the tracks. The gruesome debris included two heads of decapitated victims.

BOASTER SHOT DOWN BY NEGRO

PERU, Ind., Aug. 25.—(INS)—Miami County authorities today were searching for L. Bradley, a negro, who shot down and killed McKinley Spencer, 40, Indianapolis negro near here last night while Spencer was boasting that he had slain several men.

The shooting occurred at a C & O Railroad construction camp about a half a mile east of the city.

Spencer, according to eye-witnesses, had appeared at the cook shack brandishing a revolver and pointing to notches on the gun which he boasted represented men he had killed. He asserted he intended to place several more notches on his gun and threaten Ed Bradley.

The latter armed himself with a .38 caliber revolver and when Spencer stepped out of the cook shack shot him in the head, the bullet striking Spencer in the left eye.

After the shooting Bradley fled.

TILDEN IS SUSPENDED

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—(INS)—William T. Tilden's reign as the greatest lawn tennis player of his time has come to an end. Charged with violating the amateur code of the United States lawn tennis association, Tilden was tried by the executive committee of the Association in a six-hour session at the Hotel Vanderbilt last night and was found guilty on all counts by unanimous vote.

Sentence that he be declared ineligible to take part in amateur lawn tennis was immediately passed upon him. Yet within thirty minutes after the verdict was announced—and the hour was 2 a. m., this morning, Tilden had sent word from Boston that he would seek reinstatement at the September meeting of the Association.

Tilden was charged with violating the player-writer rule.

THREE KILLED AT VINCENNES

VINCENNES, Ind., Aug. 25.—(INS)—Three men were dead here today as the result of a crash between their automobile and a B & O freight train on a local grade crossing. Two were killed outright and the third died at the Good Samaritan Hospital two hours after the accident.

The dead were:
HARRY KIDWELL, 40, of Vincennes, killed instantly.
ROBERT OZMENT, 39, Palestine, Ill., killed instantly.
CLARENCE VARNER, 26, Lawrenceville, Ill., fatally hurt.

THE THEATERS

THE GRANADA

Rin-Rin-Tin Tries Wings
Rin-Rin-Tin, The World's Greatest Dog, has done everything else but fly, in the twelve rousing photoplays which precede "A Dog of the Regiment," in which Warner production he shows at the Granada Theatre for the last times today.

In this picture he takes to flying like a duck to water. The scenes of the film are laid in the war-torn region of France during the World War, and Rinty as a German Red Cross Dog, saves the life of an American Ace, and performs other deeds of heroism by earth, water and air, which make the crowd gasp.

THE VONCASTLE

Charles Ray Showing

As Dumb-Bell Boxer

A prizefighter with a "single track mind" is the part enacted by Charles Ray in his latest picture, "The Count of Ten," the Universal-Jewel production, which has been obtained by the Voncaste Theater to show today. Ray, throughout a long film career which has made him one of the best known players in motion pictures, has never been seen to such advantage as in this role, which is also different from anything he has ever attempted.

"The Count of Ten" will prove a thrilling picture for those who are interested in boxing as well as for those who love romance. Intermingled with one of the finest stories of the "roped arena" ever made into picture form is the "single track" love of the prizefighter for his wife who first causes him to lose the fight for the middleweight championship of the world and then regain it.

TWO TAKING TREATMENT BECAUSE OF RABID DOG

Enoch Jenkins and his grand-nephew, Robert Annadale, are taking the Pasteur treatment. Mr. Jenkins was bitten through a hand by a dog owned by his son, Herbert Jenkins. His nephew is taking the treatment for fear he may have been exposed to rabies from playing with the dog. On examination of the brain of the dog by state authorities shows that the dog had one of the most pronounced cases of rabies that has been discovered this year.

Mr. Jenkins was at the home of his son and in playing with the dog, the animal bit him. Nothing was thought of the matter at the time but the dog soon showed that it was ill and in a day or so, its condition was such that it was killed. Mr. Jenkins had gone to Putnam County and he was called back by telegram that he might take the treatment. Mr. Jenkins says there are now 45 persons taking treatment from the state authorities.—Danville Republican.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"CHRIST JESUS" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, August 26.

The Golden Text is from John 1:14, "The Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth."

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "For whether is easier, to say, 'Thine sins are forgiven thee; or to say, 'Arise, and walk? But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (then saith he to the sick of the palsy,) 'Arise, take up thy bed, and go into thine house. And he arose, and departed to his house' (Matt. 9:5-7).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The same power which heals sin heals also sickness. This is the beauty of holiness, that when Truth heals the sick, it casts out evils, and when Truth casts out the evil called disease, it heals the sick" (p. 135).

SWIMMING POOL WOULD PAY IN GREENCASTLE

Greencastle needs a swimming pool. In the above statement there is little room for argument. For several years the young as well as the older residents of the city have had no place of recreation during the hot summer months other than in Big Walnut creek or in nearby parks or resorts.

Robt. Park, recently given to the City, would be an ideal location for a pool. Many local citizens interviewed in the interest of a swimming pool admit the need but few advance any method of financing the building of such a pool.

Swimming pool experts, recently consulted by a representative of The Herald, point to the city of Pana, Ill., a town of 8,000 which recently built a pool costing $17,000. The first year of operation the pool netted $3,000 clear money above expenses, from 25 cent admissions, a return of 16 per cent on the investment. The Chautauque Association and Chamber of Commerce co-operating raised $17,000 for the construction of this pool in three days selling $50.00, 5-year, 6 per cent bonds.

The experts go on to say that they do not know of a single pool, both municipal and commercial that is not making a sufficient income to at least pay all operating expenses and the interest on the investment. There is no reason at all why a swimming pool in Greencastle would not offer the same financial returns. My personal opinion is that a swimming pool in Greencastle would give sufficient returns to pay all operating expenses, interest on the investment, as well as furnish sufficient funds with which to take care of your park.

MARTINSVILLE, Ind., Aug. 25.—(INS)—The City of Martinsville is in a sad plight today—it has a nice new swimming pool and no place to put it. The Lions Club has made all the arrangements to build a swimming pool and to finance the project without any cost to the city.

The Lions Club planned to put the pool in the Martinsville city park which was donated to the city by Mrs. Hyndam on the condition that nothing be operated in it for profit. The Lions hoped to operate the pool for profit and use the money for improving the park.

Mrs. Hyndam evidently wasn't in favor of too frequent bathing and on the grounds that the pool would be a profit making device she has refused the Lions Club permission to locate the pool in the park.

There are several different methods of financing the construction of swimming pools, namely, the one as described in the Pana circular, direct taxation and as they have done in one city fifteen of the leading business men put up the money for a swimming pool. The swimming pool belongs to this committee until they have returns on their investment, after which time the pool is turned over to the city. We have learned that this idea has proven very satisfactory with this group of men. In another city where we are working, a group of about six men have guaranteed the city to underwrite the cost of a swimming pool, the city to furnish the funds. In other words, these men were so sure that a swimming pool will be a profitable undertaking that they have guaranteed to the city that in case it is not they will make up the difference.

It seems to me that any one of these four methods might easily be taken care of in Greencastle. In the event that you want a swimming pool for next season, I would suggest and this suggestion comes from the experience of others, that all necessary arrangements should be made this fall so that the pool can either be constructed this fall yet or the very first thing next spring, with all money available at that time.

HEALTH SERVICE
ISSUES TYPHOID FEVER WARNING

By KENNETH CLARK
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—A warning of the country to take precautions against typhoid fever comes from the United States Public Health Service.

It was not an alarmist statement, but advised that while typhoid fever may occur at any time during the year, it is most prevalent in the United States during the late summer and in the autumn months. Typhoid germs are taken into the body through the mouth with the food or drink, or by means of direct infection with flies.

"This history of the remarkable control of typhoid fever which has taken place in the United States within the past 20 years is one of the striking examples of the value of public health work," it was said.

"Typhoid fever which only a few years ago took a toll of more than 50,000 lives annually is now responsible for the death of something less than 10,000 each year.

Develop Preventives

"Preventive medicine has developed to such an extent that we are sometimes prone to have a false sense of security and to neglect important fundamentals of sanitation. Eternal vigilance is the price of sanitation."

Three cardinal rules for prevention of the disease were outlined:

1. Swat the flies.
2. Boil all milk or water which is of doubtful purity.
3. Vaccinate or inoculate against the disease.

"Among the foods other than milk that are most likely to be exposed to infection and liable to convey typhoid fever are those eaten raw or uncooked," it was stated. "Well-cooked food or properly pasteurized or boiled milk or milk products are safe from the danger of conveying typhoid or other milk-borne or water-borne diseases.

"The necessity of inoculation against the fever should be emphasized at this period of the year. It is especially important that the inoculation be done before the vacation period begins.

Urge Vaccination

"It is an established fact that a person may be rendered comparatively safe from typhoid fever by inoculation. The duration of this immunity is not exactly known, but it is certainly safest to be
